“SEEING THROUGH THE EYES OF GOD”

To see through the Eyes of God is to see humanity as Christ sees humanity. With unconditional love.

Many of us tend to focus all our attention only on the problems that surrounds us, and all we see is the problem, the impossible, fear and uncertainty. The devil will do everything at this point to magnify those seemingly difficult situations. When we stop seeing the problems around us and start seeing the solutions with the eyes of faith, and our spiritual eyes, then we will begin to have a Godly visualization. We need to see His healing virtues, his unfailing love, his mercy that endures to all generations, and the father heart of God.

When Jesus sees the world, His eyes transcend time. He looks with eyes that see through our souls.

What does God see when He looks at us? He sees how different people have helped and hurt us. He sees our disappointments, our fear, our failures and how all these things have changed us in good and bad ways. He also sees our desire to be something greater than ourselves; at the same time He sees how we can be our worst enemy. He sees that we’re doing the best we can, though He knows we could do better. He sees our wishes for love and success. He also sees that we’re searching for answers, but don’t know where to look. Jesus is the answer. But our blindness prevents us from seeing Him.

Even Christians, followers of Christ, may not be able to see with the Eyes of God because we are getting in the way. Our problems, our selfishness, our earthly vanities, our anxieties, our prejudices, our lack of trust...are all like a closed curtain on a window. They prevent us from seeing what the Holy Spirit would have us see.

But the truth is...perhaps we really don’t want to see all God wants us to see, because we are afraid to see the truth. We really know that if we could see the truths of God...then we would have to act on those truths, and many of us are actually not quite ready for that yet.

In order to see with the Eyes of God, we first have to see God. And when we understand how God sees us, we can look at our neighbor and fully understand what God sees in each and every one of us.

“For God sees not as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart.” -1 Samuel 16:7

Our God measures man by His standard divine, For He sees underneath every outward design. He looks past possessions and costly attire; He studies the heart, every thought and desire.

Our God does not judge by how tall we may stand, or how much we possess, or the rank we command, or the title we hold. His gaze goes far deeper to things that endure; He honors the man who keeps his heart pure.

For the eyes of the Lord are searching to and fro, We have no secrets that our God does not know. Our Father knows our thoughts, He understands every part. Man sees the outside, but God sees the heart.

GLORY BE TO GOD!!!
